

Main Stage

Saturday, May 28, 2022

10:00 AM	Colonial Parade Kicks off from Upper High St.
11:00 AM	Prizes and Awards Classic Run, Colonial Parade, Edna Ross Award
11:15 AM	Flag Raising Ceremony Kent County Community Band at Cross and High St.
11:15 AM	Dover English Country Dancers 18 th Century dancing
11:30 PM	R-E-S-P-E-C-T Yvette Hynson & Children's Choir singing Aretha's iconic composition
12 NOON	Rock Candy Cloggers Clogging, flatfooting, with music by Slim Harrison, Stephen Christoff
12:30 PM	Country Current US Navy's premier modern country & cutting edge bluegrass ensemble
1:55 PM	The Chestertown Resolves Read by Brian Moore of WCTR
2:00 PM	TEA PARTY RE-ENACTMENT
3:00 PM	Spiced Punch More Colonial Music fun!

Wandering Performers

9:30 AM - Noon	Slim Harrison Musician	Queen and High Streets
	Stephen Christoff Musician	Cross and High Streets
12:30 PM - 3:30 PM	Rob Caruthers Musician	Cross and High Streets
11 AM – 2 PM	Lucy Terry Prince Freed enslaved woman, orator, poet, storyteller	Queen & High Streets
11 AM – 2 PM	Ona Judge Enslaved servant to Martha Washington who escaped and was never caught	Queen & High Streets
11 AM – 2 PM	Elizabeth Freeman aka Mumm Bet First enslaved Black to successfully file lawsuit for freedom in state of Massachusetts	Queen & High Streets